Ir. Hozaker lives at Cottingham.

Aldemanx Symoss, at the meeting of the loc Commissioners a few days age, called the athaupton training ship a "Lump of Lumber", be worthy Alderman is quite right. By inversal consent it is admitted that vessels have 'right to be fixtures in the fairway of the ver. For our own part we incline to the olition of the ship altogether, and that what, plain Bezorono Pru recommended in his pamelet on Training-ships should be done. In the e of the vessel under notice, the time will soon se when she will be regarded as unit for purpose which she now fulfils. Perhaps time has arrived. At any rate, there old be no further delay in her removal to convenient anchorage. For several months he year the Southampton is in dock, about the place, we should think. At anyrate it is the st. The danger at present is great to those on a first of the standard of the standard

THE CLANG OF PARTIES.

The clang or parties has not been silenced by the overwhelming results of these elections; and if the Government-to-be does not move fast enough for the advanced Radicals, then the advanced Radicals that are will shortly make of the coming Administration a Government that was.

POLLINGS TO-DAY.

Edinburgh and St. Andrew's (University), and four following days. Hawick Burghs Leicostershire (North) Lincolnshire (North) Mayo (County) Worcestershire (East).

There are 302 members returned for English and Welsh boroughs. All the English and Welsh boroughs have now returned their immelers, and the result is that 217 Liberals and 55 Conservatives at for these con-stituencies. In the last Parliament be boroughs re-turned 1197 Liberals and 148 Conservatives, so that there were not to be a superior of the conservatives, and the their figures is as easily as possible that of the last Conserva-tive majority, so that the English and Welsh boroughs may be said to have swept eavey the whole Conserva-
