HERAT OCCUPIED ?

The latest step—or, to put it with an extreme caution, the contemplated step—of the Government in the East is one which provokes a lively increase at the latest is one which provokes a lively increase announces it has reason to believe that directions have been sent to our Minister at Teheran to inform the Persian Government that Her Majestry's Government released Persia from the treaty engagement of 1857, by which Persia bound henself not to take possession of Herat, and goes on to show that this is atnatement to an invitation to Persia to do the thing she is thus expressly permitted to do, and the thing she was an expressly forbidden to do by the Treaty of 1857; when, in reply to a query on the subject, the Praxima intimates that communications have been made from the Court of Persia to Her Majestry referring to her North-Eastern Frontier, but that nothing is yet concluded, and that it would just now be inconvenient to go into details; and when in the House of Commons the Clancealor of the Excensions such the Clancealor of the Excensions such that the context of the Excensions is the constitution of the Excensions and the context of the Excensions of the Excensions and the context of the Excensions and the co is CHANCELOR of the adorses the desirability of a present silent hat is going on—we may then make ainds that what has been asserted is all intents and purposes un fair accomption of the condition which she will be allowed to occupy it, as to have Herat. The only questions we rouble considered about are the condition which she will be allowed to occupy it, was when we effectually outside her frow and from all Afghanistan, telling her to a more consultant and the conditions and not to the condition of the America's territory. Persia was the than furtively regarded as the puppet of friendly, and independent "4" friendly, and independent "4" friendly, and independent "4" and the second territory of the second territory o
