THE HULL POLICE AND THE PUBLIC. SOULCOATES UNION AND THE BEVERLEY

A meeting of the Watch Committee are All 18th.

many way? any said he would not like to say there were on the feetpath, but he was not within 40ft.

aan? auy: That he tried to incite me to a breach se, is order that he might bring me to the tness named Martin gave corroborative testimony, reply to questions, said that it was only Lens-manner, not his words, that was objectionable, were other crowds, but the policeman did not ment a vez sperectivy and the hash or ordered which be believed was called. The bible and which be believed was called. The bible and was the special properties of the bible and the bi raman said there was a letter, but it was onymons. It was signed "J. Oxley, Hull." was read, and it depribed Mr. Billany's dis-sing of a shameful character.] Elliott said the instructions he gave Lons-to remove Mr. Billany if he used such to remove Mr. Billany if he used such guaracter.

the letter atteitued be him—if he uses gains.

The property of the compatible of the

to act as a man clothed in a little brist sight.

If Constable remarked that the question was sold but exceeded his instruction as the constable remarked that the constable remarked property of the property of the constable remarked property of the property of the view of the wit-ters of the property of the constable remarked by a constable remarked by the constable remarked to the property of the constable remarked by the constable of All Mr. Blany said was that he had of a constable remarked by the const to complain of squint Lonstain, but of some initial his back, and the state of the considerable of the confident did not think Loneslab had exceeded his filles and the confidence of the complaint. He blanded the confidence of the complaint. He bland the confidence of the complaint. He bland the confidence of the complaint of the complaint. He bland the confidence of the complaint of the complaint of the complaint. He bland the confidence of the complaint of the complaint had been confident of the complaint of the confidence of the c committee find that P.C. Le stale ad-dillary in an improper manner, and that he as to bis future conduct."

was carried, was carried, the moved that the instructions given to be by his superior officers to remove Mr. South end, which did not apply to other innitarly conducting themselves, was, in 4 this committee, an improper course to Goodsy was sent for, and was asked what he gave to Sergeant Elliott. He replied wed the letter to the sergeant, and told him

Gooday said Lonsdale told him on the previous that he waited for some time to hear the discourse considered it was disgraceful, and he therefore s decision.

Gooday said that he considered the passing jution was a hardship upon him, because he municated the complaint to Sergt. Elliott, m to attend to it.

runan said he was satisfied that neither the or the Chief Constable were to blame in the ster (134) was next called before the com-nature a complaint made by Mr. Thomas diding in North-street. The man stated that is pelted him with elay, and when he called instanto to the matter, and the hops were instant on the matter, and may not you as well as other people." A may not you as well as other people." A second of the heart Hesters way, "if the old—does not run him in."—The officer denied having said ving sear the hops throw elay.—The com-

MARKET-PLACE RATEPAYERS' ASSOCIA

ANNUAL INSPECTION OF THE HULL ARTILLERY.

THE OUTBREAK OF DIPTHERIA

MULL POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY: Before Lieut. Colonel SAYER (chairman Lieut. Colonel Commandant Humfman, and Mr. JARESON. A DISORDERIT CHARACTER.— Eliza Pattinson, sing a comman prostitute, was sentenced to 35 d murroomment.