LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

W. Vicary, Esq., again subscribes £2 2s to the Exeter School of Art.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the local branch will be held at the Clarence Hotel next Tuesday.

By the death of Rev. W. W. Harvey, M.A., rector of Truro, one of the Exeter Prebendal stalls is vacated.

It is reported that the Exeter and Exmouth railway is about to be leased to the London and South Western Railway Company.

THE Theatre will be opened next Monday, when Mr. Bolton will introduce to his patrons "The Monastery of St. Just" and the "Babes in the Wood."

The Dunsford District Ploughing Match will take place at Bridford on the 25th inst.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning a bullock was killed near the Topsham Station, on the North Devon line by the mail train.

ALMSHOUSE.—Fresh donations:—W. H. C. Nation, Esq. £20; Rev W. Lawson, £1 1s; Mrs. Bridgman, (2nd