Dear Jane, your letter arrived while I was on holiday, hence the delay in replying.

I'll be delighted to send you & your sister copies of the 'Annals of the Parish' but it hasn't been updated since the second edition printed in 1990 as we had 4000 copies printed at that time.

The copies cost £3 each, the postage air mail to Canada will be £1.61 & postage to Oxford 43p. Any information on M.E.M. Donaldson - any snippets will be of great interest to us & could be included in the next reprint. Very few people here remember Miss Donaldson & it would be tremendous to have any personal reminiscences. The house has been rebuilt but unfortunately has a flat roof with water tank on the roof, looks unsightly & nothing compared to the lovely thatch roof. Planning today couldn't have allowed it, but this was rebuilt in the 60s.

Thank you for your interest in

Ardnamurchan

Yours sincerely
