MARRIAGES

MR. R. M. BERESFORD AND MISS D. K. HOWARD

The marriage took place yesterday, at St. Mark's, North Audley Street, of Mr. Richard Marcus Beresford, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Beresford, Lydgate House, Hunstanton, Norfolk, and Miss Diana Katherine Howard, eldest daughter of Major Henry Howard, of 4, Argyll Road, Kensington, and Mrs. Millicent Howard, Little Tangley, Womersley, Guildford, Surrey. The Dean of Ely officiated, assisted by the Rev. Laurence Davis and the Rev. K. H. Thorneycroft.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a long-sleeved gown of ivory-white broché satin in a lily design, the heart-shaped neckline finished with a pair of diamond clips and the train cut in one with the skirt. Her tulle veil was held in place with a wreath of miniature lilies, and she had long ear-rings of real jasmine flowers. She carried a bouquet of mixed white flowers. Angus and Jeremy James were the pages, and Miss Pamela Howard, Miss Audrey Howard, Miss Rosemary Howard, and Miss Joan Howard (sisters of the bride), Miss Loveday Packer (cousin of the bridegroom), and Miss Betty Gardiner were the bridesmaids. The pages wore turquoise-blue chiffon blouses with satin trousers to match, and the bridesmaids wore sleeveless dresses and short-sleeved boleros of turquoise-blue lace with narrow sashes of deep red velvet. Their headdresses were of deep red roses, and they carried bouquets of these flowers. Mr. Charles Blackburne was best man.

The reception was held at Holme House, Regent's Park (lent by Mrs. James Field, aunt of the bride), after which the bride and bridegroom left for Yugoslavia.

Buffer by Jacksons.
