

NEWFOUNDLAND

Sat. eve. 1 June 91

SCENIC NEWFOUNDLAND OUTPORT

One of the many picturesque villages on the Newfoundland coastline that owe their existence to the sea. Arrived last night after 18 1/2 hrs. travel, by bus & air, which all went well to plan. I had 4 hrs. to kill at Deer Lake before the final bus, & got in a good walk. The motel owner greeted me kindly & brought a supper tray, lovely soup, to my room. Elderhostel starts tomorrow, & my room mate hasn't come yet. There is no chair in our room, no hooks anywhere, & hardly any drawer or hanging space. Only a huge TV which I don't understand! This is a very different world - small scattered communities, & really out of the rat-race. I am floored by the Newfie accent, they are floored by mine! Much love, - will write

Photo by G. N. Corbett

POST CARD

Mrs F. Maskell
27 Can Life Close
Oxford OX2 7BS
U.K.

again sometime
Jane

Distributed by ATKINSON MARKETING LIMITED
P.O. Box 160, Bay Roberts, Newfoundland, CANADA
No. 38 in a Series.

Air Mail Par avion

plastichrome®