Dear David,

Your ~~E~~mail arrived & I have replied e-mail, but you probably won't get it as apparently we would have had to pay at this end in order to reply, & Marion had said No Thanks already.

I think it is an excellent idea that you should be able to e-mail & Marion doesn't mind a bit, Robin & James both use it to me & James has co-opted Marion as a honorary Aunt, which she enjoys.

I'm glad that it really came across in the funeral service that Sandy was a man with many sides to his character.

You can rest assured that the e-mail system works!

Sandy leaves a big blank, & we now move into a new family configuration.

With very good wishes to you

Jane
